Dear Parishioners,

As I was preparing my thoughts for this column, I was reminded of a question that we need to ask ourselves. That question is “how do we envision heaven?” Is it a place where our souls, that nebulous spirit, sits on clouds, plays the harp, and is continuously joy-filled? This is an interesting question to ask ourselves and our gospel today gives us a better sense of this vision of heaven. Both at the Easter Vigil and on Easter Sunday itself, we renewed our baptismal promises. In this renewal, we professed that we believe in the “resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.” If this is truly our faith, then we are more than spirits or ghosts residing in heaven. In our gospel for this Sunday, the Risen Christ once again appears to the apostles. They were terrified as our gospel tells us and thought they were seeing a ghost. So Jesus asks, “why are you troubled? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” So the resurrection is more than just our souls alive and living. From this picture that Luke presents, the Risen Christ is recognized, could be touched, and was able to be seen. What this gospel passage seems to indicate is that heaven is a type of existence that is radically different from that of earth, as we are no longer bound by time or space, and that we have a risen body that will live forever without pain, suffering, or any other struggles. I think this gospel passage challenges us and helps us to understand that the resurrection of the body is REAL, and that the hope for that resurrection is ours if we remain people of faith, of hope, and of love. May God, in the terms of the last words of our gospel, help us be witnesses of this resurrection by the life that we live.

Next Saturday, April 21st, several of the couples of our parish will share with those who are preparing for marriage what this sacrament means in their lives. This is our Pre-Cana day for all the couples who are entering marriage in the next few months. I can’t thank enough our couples from the parish who are sharing their time and talents with these young people. This is truly a reflection of their stewardship. As we make final arrangements for this day, I ask your prayers for our couples who are sharing their marriages, but also ask your prayers for those who are entering into this sacrament of commitment and love. We all need each other and prayer is one way that we show our love and support. Thank you.

Next Saturday, April 21st, we want to welcome the students from Quincy Notre Dame who are joining us here at St. Peter Church for our 5:00 p.m. Mass prior to their prom dinners and Mass. It is a welcome sight to see so many young people celebrating the Eucharist before their evening of fun and enjoyment. Let’s keep each of these young people in our prayers, asking God to watch over them and keep them from all harm.

Have you purchased your “Everybody Wins Mega Raffle” ticket. We do have them for sale here in the parish office. If you need a winning ticket, we have them for sale for $100 a piece. No guarantees but you will be a winner in my mind.

CD of the Week

How to Talk About Same Sex Marriage by Trent Horn- The author carefully considers same-sex marriage and provides an in-depth discussion that addresses the misconceptions held by many in our society today. This examination of what marriage really is, and what it is not, provides a truly gracious and persuasive response to the debate surrounding this important topic.

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

PRESCHOOL STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT PERSONAL SAFETY

P.S. Happy Bear is part of the P.S. It's My Body! program from Advocacy Network for Children, a child abuse prevention center that serves Adams, Brown, Cass, Hancock, McDonough, Morgan, Pike, Schuyler, and Scott counties. A trained Advocacy Network staff member presented the program, which discussed recognizing welcome and unwelcome touches, which parts of the body are private, using resistance skills (say "No," move away), and identifying trusted adults to tell about inappropriate touches. The play incorporated humor and audience participation to allow children to teach Happy Bear about personal safety. By talking with our kids about these important safety issues, we create a safer community for all children.

Teacher Opening at St. Peter School

St. Peter School is accepting applications for an Interventionist Specialist who has experience in special education, writing and overseeing ISP and 504 plans. This person will work directly with the teacher and students within the class who have challenges in academic areas. This certified teacher will be working with students using the Readers and Writers Workshop approach as well as in various subjects. Interested applicants should send their resume to Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh at 2500 Maine Street, Quincy, IL 62301 or email to c.venvertloh@cospq.org.

World Down Syndrome Day—March 21st

Every year, the 21st of March is a very special day. This is World Down Syndrome Awareness Day. People with Down Syndrome are born with an extra chromosome 21. If you look at a picture of chromosomes, many times they look like different colored pairs of socks. With Down Syndrome, you have an extra "sock" or chromosome 21 which is why we celebrate this special day on the 21st of March (3/21). Our students honored this special day by participating in the "Lots of Socks" worldwide campaign run by Down Syndrome International. Our students and staff wore brightly colored, patterned, or silly socks. They even wore 3 socks for 3 chromosomes. We also had a special presentation given to us by Andrew and Laura Mays. Their son Logan joined our school last year. He greets everyday with a beautiful smile and is always willing to give anyone a hug. We are blessed to have Logan, his brothers, and parents be a part of our school family.

If you read in our last week's bulletin, our Haiti Committee was able to fill 12 big barrels filled with all kinds of items for our sister parish in Haiti. One of our committee members, David Cortes, was able to secure from BASF in Palmyra, Missouri, these 12 barrels as a donation. On behalf of our parish family and our sister parish in Haiti, I want to thank David and BASF for this generous donation. Another committee member, Will Cloninger, a senior at Quincy Notre Dame, was able to solicit numerous items from QND students along with $794.25 in monetary donations. For all this support, we are very grateful and thank God for such committed members of our committee. I also want to thank our committee members who organized, packed, and sealed our barrels. These Haiti committee members include Jane Dreschler, Stephanie Fimmen, Marilena Frier, Barb Holtmeyer, Barb Kiefer, Carolyn Schuering, Karen Sedovic, Kim Venvertloh, and Jenny Willingham. Finally, transporting these barrels were Derek and Stephanie Fimmen. For this committee, I thank God for what they have done for the least of our brothers and sisters in the Lord.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: From the Bible: What was the greatest female financier in the Bible? Pharoah's daughter. She went down to the bank of the Nile and drew out a little prophet. Which Bible character had no parents? Joshua, son of Nun. What excuse did Adam give to his children as to why he no longer lived in Eden? Your mother ate us out of house and home.

Quarter Action Fundraiser for QND Campus Ministries

Where: QND Cafeteria

When: Saturday, April 28th
Doors Open at 5:00 p.m.
Auction Starts at 6:30 p.m.

Who: Friends & Family of QND
Open to the Public

What to bring: Snacks to share with the table, a drink With a lid (non-alcoholic), and lots of quarters. For your convenience, we will have the following food items available: popcorn, sweet treats, walking tacos, bottled water, and a variety of Pepsi products. Rolls of quarters will also be available. Arrive early to shop our local vendors.

What is it: you purchase a numbered bidding paddle for $1. (You may purchase more than one. There will be only 300 available). What follows is something like an auction with a twist. We will have approximately 50 items available for bid. Each item has a monetary amount which will be determine the bidding cost. For each paddle used to bid on an item, you must pay the allotted quarters. (Ex: if an item is valued at 2 quarters and you hold up 3 paddles, you must pay 6 quarters.) Number are then drawn out of a bucket and the person holding up the matching paddle number wins that item. (If your number is called and your paddle is on the table, you do not win.)
