Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate one of the five remaining holydays in our Church calendar, namely, the Solemnity of All Saints. This Holyday, however, happens to fall on a Sunday this year so we are able to celebrate it more fully than if it were during the week. But this Holyday is always on November 1st and is the holyday that gives us hope.

We all have our dreams in life, some are fulfilled and others we still await. By virtue of our baptisms, we were given a dream by the Church, a dream to live like children in light, a dream to be with God fully in heaven. And when this dream is fulfilled, it is called being a saint. Too often in life we excuse ourselves thinking that we could never be a saint especially when comparing ourselves to those saints known to be in heaven. It is said, a point to remember, that there is not a saint without a past, and no sinner without a future. No matter what our past is, no matter how unworthy we might feel, God is there with His grace to help us overcome our fears, faults, sins, and failings, and to be the person who is loved and graced by Him. Because of this grace, we can truly have our dreams fulfilled of living with our God in heaven forever. As we hear from our Book of Revelation this weekend, saints come from every walk of life, from the far and dark corners of this world, with all differing backgrounds, with life's successes and failures, and from all these walks of life they emerge victorious because Jesus has conquered everything that would keep us from Him, including sin and death. So today we honor those whose dreams have been fulfilled and we pray to them asking them to pray for us that we too will emerge from the failings of our human nature to have those dreams fulfilled of living with our God forever in heaven. Saints of God, pray for us.

As we honor these saints today, I invite you to go to the shrine of All Saints which is located in the back of the Church, near the most south exit and view the shrine. Pick out the saints whose relics are there and realize that so many were just like you and me. Were they sinners? The answer is yes. Were they perfect? The answer is no. But God's grace changes, transforms, and challenges us to be His creature, not creatures of our own making. Since we are part of the Communion of Saints, we are reassured that they are praying for us until we truly have communion with them in heaven. Saints of God, pray for us.

Since All Soul's Day, November 2nd, the traditional day that we remember the Souls in Purgatory, you are invited to pray for all those who are still preparing themselves for the eternal joys of heaven. These people have completed their earthly tent and through the mercy of God are making themselves ready for the fullness of the love of God in heaven. Because of sin and its effects in our lives, these souls, through our prayers and sacrifices, are making themselves ready for the eternal joys of heaven. May these souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

November is the month to remember the dead. In that spirit, I ask you to help us in support of our Catholic cemeteries. You have special envelopes and I ask you to help us improve these special places for the dead.

Watch videos of current and past students. Enjoy performances that you have been missing in person. Play a game with others watching from their homes for prizes that you don't want to miss. You will even get a special delivery before the event even begins. A party box will arrive at your door that will get you in the mood for supporting QND like never before. We all need something to look forward to! Please join us for this once-in-a-lifetime, special, virtual event. Most importantly, you won't want to miss the famous Extravaganza auctions...fully online this year for you to bid on! Fr. Leo's column continued....

This weekend we have our Lay Witness talk concerning our Stewardship Renewal. This year our lay witnesses will be Luke and Tara Bealor. This witness talk always continues to inspire me as we see people within our parish living out what it means to be stewards of God's graces.

Speaking of stewardship, the diocese is also attempting to transition itself from thinking only about budgets to be met to more of a stewardship lifestyle regarding our treasures. So what was originally called the Annual Catholic Services Appeal (ACSA) has been changed to Parish Tithing. The former was based on a budgetary number which then taxed each parish. The latter understanding is more Scriptural, the understanding of giving 10% to God. So each of you received a letter from the Bishop reviewing this change with you, asking you to support the Parish Tithe effort. Our parish tithe this year is $149,024, which is 10% of our total parish income from 2018. Your direct contribution to the diocese will assist our parish in its achievable goal of our tithe to the diocese.

A Prayer for Protection In Time Of Pandemic

O Mary, you always brighten our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the Cross, took part in Jesus' pain while remaining steadfast in faith.

O loving Mother, you know what we need, and we are confident you will provide for us as at Cana in Galilee. Intercede for us with your Son Jesus, the Divine Physician, for those who have fallen ill, for those who are vulnerable, and for those who have died. Intercede also for those charged with protecting the health and safety of others and for those who are tending to the sick and seeing a cure.

Help us, O Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who took upon himself our suffering and carried our sorrows, so as to lead us, through the Cross, to the glory of the Resurrection. Amen.
