Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 20, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, the Church celebrates the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Some parishioners wondered why the 12th Sunday, confused at to what happened to the other 11 Sundays. The numbering of the Sundays of Ordinary Time is determined by when Easter is. Once Easter is designated, then we know when Lent begins. From after the Epiphany to Ash Wednesday, the Church celebrates Ordinary Time, usually anywhere from the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time to the 7th or 8th Sunday. From there, the Church begins Ash Wednesday, Lent, Easter and finish with Pentecost. Then the Church begins Ordinary Time again until the First Sunday of Advent. Hopefully this make sense to you in the calculation of Ordinary Time through the year.

Our gospel for this 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time is the gospel of Jesus calming the violent storm for the apostles as they sailed the sea. I always find this a comforting and encouraging story. The apostles, as requested by Jesus, were crossing the sea to the other side when they encountered a violent storm. Scared and afraid, they woke Jesus from his slumber in the stern of the boat and heard Him say, "Quiet! Be still!" And as the gospel tells us, "the wind ceased, and there was a great calm." The concluding words of this gospel says so much as it states: "Who then is this whom even the wind and sea obey?" Well, this is the Jesus whom we place our trust. This is the Jesus who suffered and died, giving us the hope of the resurrection. This is the Jesus who calms the storms of our lives with His reassuring presence and calm. Who is this Jesus? He is the one in whom we place our faith, our hope and our love in the midst of storms, crises, trials, and crosses, providing us with the strength to carry on.

Since we have our plaques of Venerable Augustus Tolton on the brick walls coming from the upper parking lot to the parking lot by the cafeteria, I have decided to move his statue that was erected by Fr. Bauer in front of our St. Peter School. This statue often gets lost and I wanted to make it much more visible and present to St. Peter Church. So we will be moving this statue to right above the plaques on the rock filled landscape above them. His statue will be more in a predominant space and will be visible as one enters the Church. It will be located again outside the south entrance to the Church so that a person can see it, and then perhaps go down the steps to see parts of his life depicted on the plaques. Our girl scout troop has volunteered to plant some bushes, trees, and flowers in front and around the statue, creating a beautiful landscape for this statue. Hopefully with the help of some parishioners we will be able to move this statue soon. When this gets done, I am hoping to arrange a time for a dedication of this entire project.

If you have not filled out the survey question for the project in which we are involved by an organization called "Communio" I ask that you do this as soon as possible. Directions are found in our bulletins once again this week. Please follow the link. I actually took the survey myself and even with my incompetence on the computer I was able to complete it without any problem. Probably took me less than three minutes. We are the only Catholic parish to be part of this project and so it is very important that you do the survey. Thanks a bunch!

Fr. Leo's column continued....

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: When I was:
 Four years old: My daddy can do anything.
 Five years old: My daddy knows a whole lot.
 Six years old: My dad is smarter than your dad.
 Eight years old: My dad doesn't know exactly every thing.
 Ten years old: In the olden days, when my dad grew up, things were sure different.
 Twelve years old: Oh, well naturally, Dad doesn't know anything about that. He is too old to remember his childhood.
 Fourteen years old: Don't pay any attention to my dad. He is old fashioned.
 Twenty one years old: Him? My Lord, he's hopelessly out of date.
 Twenty five years old: Dad knows about it, but then he should, because he has been around so long.
 Thirty years old: Maybe we should ask Dad what he thinks. After all, he's had a lot of experience.
 Thirty five years old: I'm not doing a single thing until I talk to Dad.
 Forty years old: I wonder how Dad would have handled it. He was so wise.
 Fifty years old: I'd give anything if Dad were here now so I could talk this over with him. Too bad I didn't appreciate how smart he was. I could have learned a lot from him.

On behalf of the parish family, I want to wish each and every one of our fathers a VERY HAPPY AND BLESSED FATHER'S DAY!

Magi. Leo J. Eulow

June, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Peter's Pence Collection allows participants to support the Universal Church and help the Holy Father as he shows mercy to the neediest people around the world, in recognition of the common humanity shared by peoples of all ethnicities and religious backgrounds.

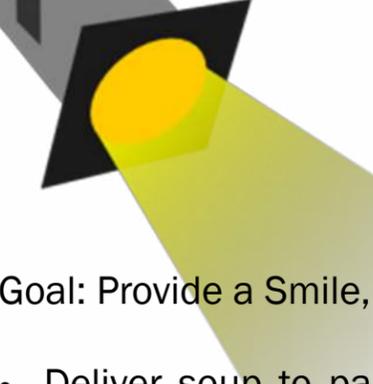

In this spirit of mercy, Pope Francis helped the people of Iran when they suffered death and catastrophic damage from floods in March and April 2019. More than 10 million people suffered property damage, and the city of Ahwaz and numerous villages were evacuated. Two million people required immediate assistance. Pope Francis donated €100,000 to direct relief efforts coordinated by the Iranian Red Crescent Society, in which Caritas Iran also participated.

By participating in the Peter's Pence Collection, you join the Holy Father's efforts to show mercy to all in two ways: you support the ongoing activities of the Holy See, and you contribute to the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those who are most in need. Our Catholic tradition calls us to provide for the material needs of the Church, and the Peter's Pence Collection is one of the opportunities we have to do so. When you answer the call, you build up the Church so that it will continue to minister to all for generations to come.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's collection as an act of mercy and charity. Join our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Francis in his ministry to the Universal Church and in reaching out to the most marginalized in our world. For more information, please visit www.peterspence.va/en.html.

Thank you, and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
† Thomas John Paprocki
