Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 4, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

This day we gather as a nation to celebrate what is termed “Independence Day.” Because of this national holiday being celebrated this weekend, we might turn to prayer as a way of reminding ourselves of who we are and what we are about. And so I invite you to use this prayer today as a means of the many freedoms that we have as well as the cost of that freedom. So let us pray:

Dear Father, I am so thankful for this nation. For all the sacrifices others have made to build and defend this country, I am grateful. Thank you for the opportunities and freedoms we have in the United States of America. Help me never to take these blessings for granted. Help me to live my life in a way that glorifies you, Lord. Give me the strength to be a blessing in someone’s life today, and grant me the opportunity to lead others into the freedom that can be found in knowing Jesus Christ. In your name, I pray. Amen.

In our liturgical calendar the Church celebrates the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time. I think one of the most beautiful readings that we have as a second reading is the 2nd letter of Paul to the Corinthians. In this letter Paul shares some insights into himself. He states, “I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me.” Yes, Paul recognizes that he could have easily fallen into a type of pride in the gifts that God gave to him, but instead was forced to deal with some type of what he calls a “thorn in the flesh.” We don’t know what that was but we do know that he, on a number of occasions, asked God to take it from him. And God’s answer was something Paul did not expect nor liked, for God tells him that “my grace is sufficient for you.” How many times have we relied only on ourselves, thinking that we can do things on our own. We never experience that humbleness of heart that should be the center of our lives. It is in this situation that we need to humble ourselves and realize that we are not our own Savior, but that we need Jesus and His grace is sufficient for all difficulties, and thorns in the flesh that we encounter. And what Paul ended up discovering within himself was that when he seemed to be the weakest in terms of strength and continuing, that’s when he discovered how strong he was with God’s grace being His strength. So a word to the wise, “when we find ourselves weak, this is when God’s grace kicks in, we rely on Him and His grace becomes sufficient, changing our weakness to His power in us.”

Next weekend, we will not be having our ministry spotlight but rather we will be hearing from a representative from Catholic Charities of Quincy encouraging us to support their mission. This is very important as Catholic Charities represents our Catholic community in witnessing our faith for the poor and others who are in need in our Quincy community. I ask you to listen to the work of Catholic Charities, and then use our parish envelope marked Catholic Charities and place it in the collection at Mass. As you know, we do not have a second collection since we are trying our best to be a stewardship parish. Whatever parishioners will give, the parish will also contribute. Just respond as usual with generous hearts.

This is a reminder and an invitation to be a part of the prayerful walk to commemorate Venerable Father Augustus Tolton. This will take place on the 124 anniversary of his death this Friday, July 9th. The walk will begin at the Tolton statue at 5:30 p.m. with words of welcome and then proceed down Maine Street to 33rd where the procession will enter St. Peter Cemetery. It is here that evening prayer will be celebrated about 6:00 p.m. There will be psalms, scripture reading, and a homily by Fr. Daren Zehnle followed by petitions. The final song will be Fr. Tolton's favorite, "Holy God we praise thy name." Again please join this prayerful walk.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: During the Revolutionary War, there was a small encampment of patriot soldiers in the woods. Before they went to bed that night, they tied chickens to the trees around the campground. They were saving them for a special meal when needed. Sure enough, some British soldiers were stumbling through the woods that night and frightened the chickens. Their screams and clucks woke the patriots and they were able to defeat and capture the entire group of British soldiers. A few nights later, the cooked prepared the chickens for dinner.

The soldiers said, "this is really good. What do you call it?"

Get ready—the chef said that in honor of these special chickens who saved their lives, he called it, "Chicken Catch a Tory."

Happy Independence Day.

Parish in Action

Haiti Sister Parish Update

Father Michel continues to update the committee on the activities at his three parishes. In early June he received 14,000 lbs. of rice and beans through the Food for the Poor matching grant. Along with some cooking oil and spaghetti that he purchased, he was able to feed 200 families in Passe-Reine, 48 families in Garoty, 56 families in Chemin Neuf, and several homebound and sick Haitians in the area.

On June 11 Father Michel notified us that the Twinning Program shipment arrived in Port-au-Prince. Shortly afterwards, he was able to pick up the shipment. Generally his practice is to distribute the majority of the personal care products and socks during the Christmas season.

On June 20 Father Michel sent pictures of eight children and adults who had just received their first holy communion at Our Lady of the Assumption in Passe-Reine.

During June Father Michel also provided classes to 82 parishioners who will be confirmed on July 4 at Our Lady of the Assumption by Bishop Eve Marie Peone from the Diocese of Gonaives. He also sent pictures of his parishioners in Chemin Neuf celebrating the Feast Day of Saint John the Baptist.

In each of the videos that Father Michel sends, he and his parishioners never fail to thank St. Peter Parish for our prayers and financial support.
