Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 17, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the 29th Sunday in this Ordinary time. We have only five weekends left before we enter the season of Advent. This is hard to believe but our calendar speaks for itself.

As we close out this season, we hear from a cast of characters who ask Jesus a variety of questions. These are the same questions that sometimes we ponder and reflect upon. Last week, the young man asked, “what must I do to enter eternal life?” A legitimate question and it seems to reflect upon us even more so as we age more and more. Today’s question involves the sons of Zebedee who asked Jesus to do for them whatever they ask of Jesus. This is sort of an open ended question but it is a question that I know that I have asked of Jesus in my life. Jesus, do this for me, or do that for me. Whether it is in prayer or just some type of reflection, yes, we want Jesus to do for us whatever we might ask. For these sons of Zebedee, they envisioned Jesus as He brings forth His kingdom and they wanted to have an important position in that kingdom, namely, to sit at His right and His left in that kingdom to come. With that question, now we find Jesus in His teaching position. He points out positions in the kingdom is not for Him to assign. Then He tells them ‘whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and give His life as a ransom for many.’ Jesus turns the world of the sons of Zebedee completely upside down. A simple question forced them to realize a total transformation in their thinking about importance and the kingdom of God. The same teaching also applies to us two thousand years later.

We want to welcome our students from QND who are present with us to celebrate this Saturday evening Mass as they get ready for their annual homecoming dance. I pray that God keeps them all safe and that His Spirit is given to them to help them make wise and prudent choices. May God watch over them and keep them from all harm.

As we look ahead, I ask you to reserve Wednesday, November 10th, in your calendars. November 10th is the anniversary of the death of Martha Jane Tolton, the mother of Venerable Augustus Tolton. Because this is her anniversary, I thought there would be no greater day to bless our Tolton statue and new garden and then to bless and dedicate our plaques in his honor. And so after our 8:30 a.m. Mass, I will invite our grade school students along with any and all parishioners to come out and celebrate this special day. As we remember Martha Jane, so we remember her son Augustus and ask God for that miracle needed to move this canonization process forward. So come and join us for this blessing and dedication. Again, it will be after the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Wednesday, November 10th. In case of rain and inclement weather, we will postpone it for another time.

Our Mass of Remembrance for those parishioners who have died this past year will be on Saturday, November 6th, at the 5:00 p.m. Mass. This will include all those parishioners who died this past year. May they rest in peace.

Chaddock Hats and Gloves Collection

The Chaddock Outreach Ministry will be collecting hats and gloves. Items are needed for both boys and girls ages 5-20. Please take a tag from the table in the Narthex. Items can be placed in the box in the Narthex November 6-7. Thank you for being a good neighbor to the residents at Chaddock.

Haiti Sister Parish Update

Father Delix Michel plans to visit Quincy the weekend of October 22-25. During this time the committee will meet with him for an update on his parish.

As an expression of our ongoing sister parish relationship, the committee will have a Christmas banner in the narthex on October 23-24 for everyone to sign. Please take a moment to do so either before or after Mass. Father Michel will then take the banner back with him.

Finally, please remember Father Michel and his sister, Keslita Jean-Louis in your prayers. She passed away in September.

Pro Life Vigil at Springfield, IL Planned Parenthood
 Blessed Sacrament's Pro-Life committee is inviting fellow parishes to join us and others in the community to participate on Thursday, October 21, 2021 in a peaceful prayerful vigil at the abortion clinic in Springfield, IL, between the hours of 8:30 am to 2:30 pm when abortions are being performed. Prayerfully consider joining us! Call Kathy Xamis at 217-257-7346, Chris Wiemelt at 217-440-5675 or Blessed Sacrament parish office at 217-222-2759 for more information and to sign-up for a time slot so travel may be coordinated. If you are unable to participate in the vigil, please pray for an end to abortion.

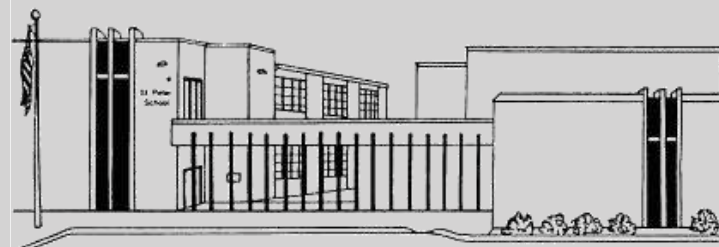

Blessed Sacrament - Theology on Tap

Are you hungry to learn more? Theology on Tap is an opportunity for adults of various faith traditions to dive deeper into the truths of their faith within the context of fun and fellowship! Dr. Daniel Strudwick, Quincy University Professor, will be discussing the theological significance of angels. Theology on Tap begins at 6:30 PM on October 26 at the Quincy Brewing Co. The first 50 participants will receive a free drink. We look forward to you joining us! To get involved or if you have questions, please contact Ginny Steinkamp at faithformation@blessedscs.org

Blessed Sacrament - Martyr Party

Join us at Blessed Sacrament in the Gathering Space for our Martyr Party on October 29 at 7:30 PM. Students are invited to dress up as their favorite martyr. We will hear a talk on the Catholic origins of Halloween, play games, and share some delicious treats. This event is primarily for 6th, 7th, and 8th graders, but siblings are welcome to join in on the fun! Please RSVP at Blessed Sacrament's Facebook Page so that we can have the right amount of snacks.

Fr. Leo's column continued...

Each of you should have received in the mail your renewal forms for our stewardship renewal for this year. I ask you first to look over the many ministries. For the past several weeks, we have tried to highlight differing ministries that are available. Second, after looking over the ministries as well as the time and treasures portion, I ask you to take it to prayer. Allow God to speak to you and ask Him to help you to discern your return to Him of the blessings that He has given to you. Then after prayerful consideration, I ask you to return the forms to us. I truly appreciate your stewardship in this parish family and I am forever thankful for you. Next weekend, we will begin our stewardship renewal with a speaker on how well we have done over this past year. May God continue to bless all of you with His grace and gifts, especially that gift of eternal life.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Two men were chatting in the living room while their wives were in the kitchen. One of the men was telling the other about the wonderful restaurant he and his wife had visited a few days earlier.

"Wow, sounds great! What was the name of it?"

"Hmm, what was it? Dear me, I'm having a hard time remembering. Oh, what's that flower with the pink blossom and thorns on the stem?"

"You mean a rose?"

"Yeah, that's it." Then looking over his shoulders he shouted, "Hey, Rose, what's the name of that restaurant we went to the other night?"

Parish in Action

October, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday - the annual, worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church - will be on October 24 this year. World Mission Sunday joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. At Mass that Sunday, we recommit ourselves to our common vocation, through Baptism to be missionaries, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Pope Francis's message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). He reminds us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel."

On World Mission Sunday, we join our Holy Father in supporting his missions. As we pray and respond here at home, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish and school throughout the world. Together, through our prayers and financial support, we bring the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions.

In a world where so many things divide us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each one of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,111 mission dioceses.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
