Dear Parishioners,

This weekend the Church celebrates the 7th Sunday in Ordinary time. Our theme for this Mass can be found in our second reading from Paul’s letter to the Corinthians. Paul helps us to understand our human nature. On one level, we are children of the first Adam by our birth. Thus we are heirs to human weaknesses and inclined to the enticements of this world. We all experience in our lives the disorder caused by original sin. But Paul also says in this same reading, that we are also children of the “Second Adam,” who is Jesus. In and through Jesus we are graced, which enables us to rise above our fallen nature and to live this new life of grace. With this theme in mind, we turn to our gospel. In this gospel, we hear some very challenging words of Jesus which call us to live the life of the new Adams, even though our tendencies are to resort to the old Adam in all of us. So Jesus says “love your enemies, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.” To the old Adam in all of us, those words go against everything that is realistic for us. But Jesus continues, as He challenges the new Adam in all of us to “Do to others as you would have them do to you. Love your enemies, be merciful, stop judging, stop condemning, forgive and you will be forgiven, for the measure you measure with will in return be measured to you.” These words are difficult and challenging. But God gives us the grace we need to make this new Adam in all of us a reality. So this weekend the Church lays before us two options, the way of the old Adam or the way of the new Adams. Which is our choice to follow?

As I stated in last week’s bulletin column, the scheduled collection of items for our sister parishes in Haiti has been put on hold. The reason for this postponement is that our usual mode of transportation has been discontinued for a while. Between the volatile situation in Haiti, and the parish twinning program undergoing changes, there is no way to transport by ship the articles to our sister parishes let alone having Fr. Michel receive them in the port of Haiti without difficulties. So in the meantime, I ask you to pray for our brothers and sisters in Haiti who are suffering from food shortage and extreme poverty let alone the political unrest in Haiti.

Since Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent is March 2nd, we are introducing for your pre-Lenten enjoyment our own version of Mardi Gras. It will be held on Friday, Feb. 25th, in the St. Peter School Gym from 7:00—11:00 p.m. Please consult the bulletin for further details. Music by the QND jazz band from 7:00-8:00 p.m. followed by the Silver Bullets from 8:00-11:00 p.m. Come and have fun, listening and dancing to some great music.

We are having a Spring session of the Men’s Group beginning on Friday, Feb. 25th, in the St. Peter School Gym. The doors open at 6:00 a.m. and the program starts at 6:30 a.m. with the finishing time being at 7:30 a.m. This session will last 7 weeks and will study the Holy Spirit in a program called the Wild Goose by Fr. Dave Pivonka. Please consult the bulletin for other details. To the men of our parish, please make this a central part of your Lenten practice.

Haiti Sister Parish Update

There will be NO COLLECTION OF UNDERWEAR AND SOCKS the weekend of Feb. 19-20. The committee just received a letter from the Parish Twinning Program of the Americas (PTPA) that the Spring 2022 Sea Container Program has been postponed until, hopefully, Fall 2022.

Obviously, the news from the Parish Twinning Program of the Americas is a disappointment for all of us. Because it occurred during our annual Twinning collection we want to make parishioners aware of what was happening. Thank you for all you do for our Sister Parishes. Please continue to keep them in your prayers.

If you have any questions, contact Marilena Frier (217-408-2904).

As we make preparations for our season of lent, I do want to tell you that we will be having an evening Mass during the weekdays of lent at 6:30 p.m. This is a tradition that Fr. Bauer started years ago and I want to continue it as an encouragement to celebrate the Eucharist, especially since many have stayed away because of the pandemic. With the conclusion of the Eucharist on Tuesday and Thursdays, I am hoping to share with you Bishop Robert Barron's various talks on the Nicene Creed. I have six CD's (one a week) in which Bishop Baron shares his knowledge of our faith in the Nicene Creed. He is a tremendous speaker and is an inspiration to all who hear him. Plan on using this Lent for adult catechesis for yourself.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: "Immediately after the service," the pastor announced, "there will be a meeting of the board."

The sermon concluded, board members gathered at the back of the sanctuary, only to find a stranger in their midst. The man was a first-time visitor to the Church.

"Friend," said the pastor, "do you know that this is a meeting of the board?"

"Yes," he visitor replied, "and after today's sermon, I suppose I'm just about as bored as anyone else."
