Palm Sunday, April 10, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we begin the most solemn week of our Church year, namely Holy Week. As we enter into this Holy Week, the Church begins our Palm Sunday liturgy with the following:

My brothers and sisters, since the beginning of Lent until now we have prepared our hearts by penance and charitable works. Today we gather together to herald with the whole Church the beginning of the celebration of Our Lord's Paschal Mystery, that is to say, of His Passion and Resurrection. For it was to accomplish this mystery that He entered His own city of Jerusalem. Therefore, with all faith and devotion, let us commemorate the Lord's entry into the city for our salvation, following in His footsteps, so that, being made by His grace partakers of the Cross, we may have a share also in His Resurrection and in His life."

During Holy Week, we will have Masses at the following times: Monday, and Tuesday, April 11th and 12th, daily Mass will be at 8:00 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.; then on Wednesday, April 13th, daily Mass will be at 8:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. We will also be celebrating Confession on each of these evenings from 5:45 p.m. to 6:15 p.m. There will be NO EUCHARIST on Holy Thursday morning.

Our liturgical celebrations for the Triduum will be as follows:

Holy Thursday, April 14, the Mass of the Lord's Last Supper —7:00 p.m. After this liturgy, it is customary to watch and pray at the altar of reposition as the apostles were invited to watch and pray with Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane. In order to have people available for all three hours, we suggest the following parishioners come and be present at times designated by the letter of their last names.

From the end of the celebration to 9:00 p.m., R-Z along with our Saints Alive group; from 9:00-10:00 p.m., A-I, along with our Found group; and then finally from 10:00-11:00 p.m., J-Q along with any college or high school students. These are only suggestions as people can come and go whenever they are able to be present. Confessions on Holy Thursday will be from 3:00-5:00 p.m.

Good Friday, April 15th, the celebration of the Passion, Veneration of the Cross, and Holy Communion, also at 7:00 p.m. Confessions will be 11:00-Noon and 3:00-5:00 p.m.

Then Holy Saturday, April 16th, the Easter Vigil—8:00 p.m. Confessions will be 11:00-Noon, and 3:00-5:00 p.m.

Easter Sunday, April 17th, Masses will be at 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

Finally, we will be celebrating the city wide Reconciliation Service at 2:00 p.m. on Palm Sunday, April 10th, at 2:00 p.m. There will be a number of priests from Quincy who will be available for individual Confessions. Please come and join us as we truly celebrate the mercy and forgiveness of our God.

March 2022

Dear Friends in Christ,
 We look forward to the liturgical celebrations of Holy Week, through which the Lord draws us more fully into the mystery of His death and resurrection.

I am writing to ask your financial support of two collections to be taken in all our parishes during these coming days. I know that I can count on you to be generous. Each year, the Holy Father asks each Catholic parish around the world to take up a Good Friday Collection to keep Christians in the Holy Land. The Collection supports the work of the Franciscans in the sacred shrines, minister to the parishes, provide formation and education in the communities and schools, and care for the basic needs of the people in the Holy Land. During such a difficult season, your support is essential to their ministry.

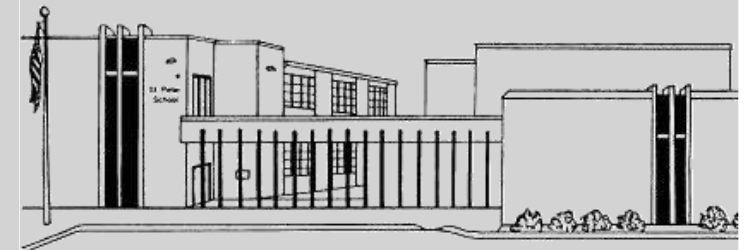

At the Easter Vigil Liturgy and the Easter Sunday Masses, another special collection, the Seminarian Collection, will help our diocese to educate and form future priests. Our diocese has been blessed with an increasing number of young men who have generously said yes to God's call. We now have fourteen seminarians, two of whom at this time will be ordained priests for our diocese in June. You can take a personal role in their formation by a generous gift in the special Easter collection.

With best wishes and prayers for a blessed Holy Week and Easter, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,
 Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
 Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

Fr. Leo's column continued..

This Tuesday, April 12, Bishop Paprocki will be celebrating the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral in Springfield at 6:30 p.m. During this liturgy, the Bishop will bless and/or consecrate the following oils to be used throughout the celebrations in our diocese: Chrism, Oil of the Sick, and the Oil of Catechumens. Each parish will be receiving a package of these oils to be used in their parish. Also, at the same Chrism Mass, the priests of the diocese will renew their priestly communion with their bishop.

Just a point of trivia—Funeral Masses are not allowed on Holy Thursday, or during the Paschal Triduum (Good Friday and Holy Saturday). Funeral rites on these days make use of a liturgy of the Word, closing with the rites of Farewell. The Paschal fast is observed on Good Friday and continues, where possible, until the Easter Vigil itself.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: During Holy Week, a first grade teacher at the local Lutheran school took great pains to explain all the events in Jesus' life that led up to the first Easter. She told them about Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and finally Easter.

When she thought she had explained everything there was to know about that special week, the teacher asked if the students had any questions. One curious little boy raised his hand and asked, "what happens if you don't want to be holy all week?"

Our Lord has written the promise of the resurrection not in books alone but in every leaf of springtime. Martin Luther Magr. Leo J. Eulow
