Fifth Sunday of Lent, April 3, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

After a long struggle with all differing kinds of weather, we have finally reached the month of April, hoping that this particular month will bring with it warmer weather, greener grass, new growth on the trees, and the sound of some beautiful songbirds in the area. As I anticipate this change, I can also imagine more pollen in the area and a lot of allergies erupting in the lives of so many of us. But at this point in time, I will take it after such a long struggle with the change of weather that we have all been experiencing the past month.

This weekend, we celebrate the 5th Sunday in our season of Lent. This is the last weekend for our scrutinies which we will be celebrating at the 9:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday morning. Because of the scrutinies, we will be using cycle A readings for this Mass. And so the Church wants the Elect to concentrate their focus on the Paschal Mystery, especially the resurrection of Jesus. We are only two weeks from Easter and so we have two readings that speak of new life. The first reading is from Ezekiel which states: “You shall know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves and have you rise from them.” And then our gospel for this Mass is the beautiful story of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead. Here we hear Jesus state the following as He confronts the tomb of His friend: “Lazarus, come out!” And with those words, Lazarus comes out of the tomb, a symbol of the resurrection. However, Lazarus will have to die again. What our Scriptures are trying to reassure us is that the new life given to us in and through our baptisms will have us rise to the joy of eternal life. And that new life begins today as we prepare the Elect for baptisms and as we prepare ourselves for the renewal of our own baptismal promises.

Those who attend the other Masses will hear a different set of readings. In the gospel proclaimed at these Masses, we hear of the crowds bringing to Jesus a woman caught in adultery. They force her to stand before them, ready to throw stones to kill her. This is when Jesus intervenes and states to those in attendance, “the person without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” After some reflection, they all seem to leave without throwing any stone. That’s when we see the God made incarnate in Jesus as He looks up and says, “woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you? Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more.” If we ever in life doubt whether God can forgive us of our sins, we need to remember this story. God’s mercy and forgiveness is always present if and only we turn to Him seeking it. To help us celebrate that forgiveness, St. Peter Church will be hosting the city wide Penance Service this next Sunday, April 10th, at 2:00 p.m. There will be a number of priests present for individual confession. Please come and join us for this celebration. Also, there will be opportunities provided for individual confession during Holy Week. These times are the following: Thursday, April 14th: 3:00-5:00 p.m., Friday, April 15th: 11:00 a.m to Noon and 3:00-5:00 p.m.; then on Saturday, April 16th”: 11:00- Noon and 3:00–5:00 p.m. Plenty of opportunity to receive the forgiveness and mercy of God and hear Jesus say to each of us, “neither do I condemn you, Go and sin nor more.”

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

Rube Goldberg STEM Fair

Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Grade students learned about the cartoonist, Rube Goldberg. He became popular for his cartoons that depicted complicated gadgets performing simple tasks in indirect, "not so simple ways." The students were challenged to create a similar machine that performs a simple task in a complicated, unnecessary way. Visitors came to view the projects.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A husband and wife had both died and gone to heaven. As they were walking the streets of heaven one day the husband couldn't get over how beautiful everything was—the presence of God, all the angels and choirs, and all the colors.

Finally, he turn to his wife and said, "honey, do you recall down on earth how you had us eat all the healthy food stuff? You know, no fried chicken, no gravy, no sugar?"

The wife said, "Yes." The husband replied, "Do you realize we could have been here about 10 years earlier if you wouldn't have done that."
