Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 24, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

Just to let you know that I had a very relaxing trip to Frankenmuth, Michigan. Did I buy some things at Bronner's, the largest Christmas store in the world? Yes, I must admit that I did. Going through that store makes Christmas in July a real experience. The only downfall is the nine to ten hour trip. But it was worth it and enjoyed the four days in Frankenmuth.

I want to thank you for the warm welcome that you gave last weekend to Fr. Francis Odoom from Ghana. He remarked how hospitable you were, how welcoming you were. After our readings for the weekend, I can only say how proud I was of you for making hospitality a living virtue in our community. It says so much about how we are living our way of stewardship in our parish. Thank you.

One of the qualities of our prayer must always be perseverance. I remember the old saying that prayer does not change God but it does change us. And so today we have perseverance as a theme for our Eucharist. In our first reading from the Book of Genesis, we encounter the story of Sodom and Gomorrah, two cities that were filled with sin. God was about to bring destruction upon them. What we find next is Abraham bargaining with God over these two cities. Abraham was pleading that these cities be not destroyed since there might be innocent people living among them. And so what we find next is Abraham pleading with God, saying, "will you sweep away the innocent with the guilty? Suppose there were 50 innocent people, would you spare the cities?" And so the bargaining continues until Abraham finally gets the number down to at least ten innocent. And the Lord replies, "for the sake of those ten, I will not destroy it." What I find interesting about this reading is not only perseverance in prayer but also a human trait that often appears in our prayer, namely, bargaining with our God. In many instances in which we find ourselves powerless, we often turn to God in prayer and bargain with Him. How many times have we said, "if God you only answer our prayer, I will change my ways." Some times our prayer is answered the way we want, and other times it's not. But so often what happens is that we never follow through on our promises. So much for bargaining with our God. But this reading emphasizes that we should always persevere in our prayer with God. Never give up but continue to pray. Our gospel also emphasizes perseverance in prayer as Jesus tells the apostles the story of the friend who comes to another at midnight for a loaf of bread. When the friend does not open the door, Jesus tells them that if the friend does not "get up to the visitor because of their friendship he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of persistence." So remain persistent in prayer as it truly will change us.

We welcome this weekend our team from Totus Tuus who will be directing this program for our young people this week. The word Totus Tuus come from St. John Paul II's motto which comes from the Latin meaning "totally yours." This program is presented with St. Francis Church for our young people during the day and our older students in the evening. Please consult the bulletin for further details.

Haiti Sister Parish Update

Greetings from Haiti,
 Father Michel continues to keep us apprised of the conditions in his country and the activities at Our Lady of the Assumption, St. Leo and St. John the Baptist Churches. Unfortunately, kidnappings of priests and their associates have not stopped. Recently, Fr. Claircius Dorvilus and three others at his rectory in Port de Paix were kidnapped by gang members. Out of very real concern for his personal safety Father Michel decided to move forward with plans to improve security on his church grounds and rectory in Passe-Reine by construction of a wall.

Within the past month St. Peter Church wired money from the Haiti Sister Parish account to help with such expenses as food for parishioners, church maintenance and any needed parish projects. Fr. Michel reports that his primary concern is the country's food insecurity and its impact on his parishioners. He will use some of this money to feed his people and some to construct a portion of the wall.

St. Peter Church also sent money from the Scholarship Program that is funded by individual parishioners and two parish groups to provide for the education of 28 students. Thanks to those sponsors the students will be able to attend the 2022-2023 school year.

Fr. Michel continues to bring the sacraments to his people. In June he officiated at First Communion services at Our Lady of the Assumption for 19 communicants and 24 communicants at St. John the Baptist.

On behalf of Fr. Michel and his parishioners, thank you for your prayers and ongoing financial support.

Thank you from Fr. Francis Odom

I would like to say a big thank you for hosting me over last weekend at St. Peter's. I thank you for the warm welcome from the parish and for your kind hospitality. The visit to Fr. Tolton's tomb made a deep impression on me and for that reason alone I am grateful.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

We are just a month away from our annual parish picnic. Each of you should have received your packet of raffle tickets as well as other information concerning the picnic. I ask you to return your raffle tickets at your earliest convenience. Also, this picnic is the annual success because of our parishioners who assist us in so many ways. We need workers, and we need workers with a smile and much hospitality. If you haven't volunteered, please consider doing so as we need help in many areas of the picnic. And if you can't be present for this picnic, we ask for your support in your prayers. Again the picnic is Saturday, August 27th.

Although Fr. Zach Samples has been with us for about a month, our official welcome for him will be after all of our Masses next weekend, July 30-31st in the cafeteria. Please join us in welcoming Fr. Zach and enjoy either donuts on Sunday or some other snack on Saturday night.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: The young couple invited their elderly pastor for Sunday dinner. While they were in the kitchen preparing the minister asked the son what they were having.

"Goat," the little boy replied.

"Goat?" replied the startled man of the cloth. "Are you sure about that?"

"Yep," said the youngster. "I heard dad say to mom, Today is just as good as any to have the old goat for dinner."

Be the kind of person your pet thinks you are.
