Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 21, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

On this third weekend in our month of August, the realization that summer vacation is now over and begins to hit home. All those things that we had planned and didn't do, must wait another year. Even though summer is not officially over, with the start of a new school year this week there is every indication that the vacation part of this summer is over. The weather may still indicate otherwise, but the presence of our kids in school says something entirely different. But we do want to welcome our young people back to another year of learning.

In our gospel today, we find people of Jesus' time concerned about being "saved." What this basically meant was being saved from the final upheaval which was expected just before the glorious triumph of the Messiah. It was thought to be a time of horror, a terrible time as people made ready for the coming of the Messiah. Everyone prayed to be delivered from that ordeal of suffering. Thus the question, "are many going to be saved" refers to this ordeal rather than any thought of eternal salvation. Jesus doesn't really answer the question but rather tells them to "enter through the narrow gate." When the ordeal happens many will try to enter the city through the city gate before it is closed. The rush of people will make it almost impossible. Instead, Jesus tells them to enter through the narrow gate which would take all their strength and effort to enter through this narrow and often unused entrance. But this particular gospel was also used to refer to eternal salvation. And so this gospel we find Jesus calling on us to use our ingenuity and all our strength toward our eternal goal. Everyone is called to salvation, but not everyone will get there. With God's grace, we must use all of our time, talents, and treasures toward this everlasting goal of salvation.

I want our parishioners to know that if they ever receive an email from me, please check the email address. Lately someone has been sending emails to people of the parish, asking for gift cards. I have been a priest for over 47 years and have never asked for money or gifts cards from parishioners. It is a scam and I hate it that parishioners have to deal with this fraudulent behavior. Please just ignore and delete these requests whenever you get them. If you are confused, all it takes is a phone call to the rectory and we will clarify. But I have never asked for money, gift-cards, from any parishioner.

In an appeal to our school families, I asked some parents to consider giving of their time and efforts to continue our scouting program here at St. Peter Church. Ever since 1995, St. Peter Church had an active and involved Cub Scout and Boy Scout troop. Lately however, we have found that we have enthusiasm from our young cub and boy scouts but we are lacking in parental leadership. We are in need of parent leadership in roles as Cubmaster and individual den leaders in order for us to continue our Scouting programs. Please, we are asking our parents to step up and help us continue our Scouting program. In our day and age, our young people need the values of Scouting in their lives more so than ever. And we will be happy to guide and train any volunteers in this endeavor. If you are interested in helping us, please contact myself, Mrs. Venvertloh, or Mrs. Reichert.

The School of St. Peter

Week of August 21, 2022
A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh
 "St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

Many participated in the Back to School Prayer Walk to kick off the school year.

The turn out for the Kick Off the School Year Mass was overwhelming. It was great to see so many of our returning as well as new families celebrate Mass outdoors before dropping off school supplies and meeting the teachers and staff. We were certainly blessed with a beautiful evening to focus on the start of an exciting school year ahead.

Part Time Para Educator-Teacher Aide Openings.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Our annual parish picnic is next Saturday, August 27th. REMINDER, OUR MASS NEXT SATURDAY WILL BE AT 4:00 P.M. THERE WILL BE NO CONFESSIONS IN THE AFTER-NOON NOR WILL THERE BE A 5:00 P.M. MASS. The picnic will begin right after this Mass. Please come down and join us for a fun-filled evening with plenty of food and drink. Of course I am a little prejudiced but I do think we have the best brats in town. But whatever you eat, I guarantee it will be tasty and filled with a lot of love. We will have music and games for all people along with a silent auction and a raffle. Please join us and find some very friendly workers.

I am asking for some temporary workers from our parish family. We have lost a maintenance man and have been unable to fill this position. I am hoping that perhaps someone from the parish might find some time to help us for a few hours each day after school. We would be happy to pay them for time spent. If interested, please give me a call at the parish office. I would appreciate any hours spent.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A man entered a drug store and asked the pharmacist for a cure for the hiccups. The pharmacist immediately reached out and slapped the man across the face.

"What'd you do that for?" asked the man angrily.

"Well, you don't have the hiccups anymore, do you?"

"No," replied the man, "but my wife out in the car still does."
