Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 9, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

Our readings today, both in the first and the gospel, deal with people suffering from what is leprosy. Whether this was leprosy as in what is called “Hansen’s disease,” or perhaps some other kind of skin disease, we do not know. What we do know is that any type of infection was taken very seriously as it could wipe out the entire community. So people who showed any type of skin infection that could be contagious were ostracized from the community in order to protect the community. That means they had to live outside the community, cry out “unclean” if anyone approached them. No one could touch or come near them. In our gospel, Jesus is approached by ten lepers. As it tells us, “they stayed at a distance from him and raised their voices, “Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!” And Jesus did. He healed all ten. Jesus then tells them to “go show yourselves to the priests” so that they could be rendered as clean once again and be restored to the community. On their way, they realized they were cured but only one returned to Jesus to thank Him. And as the gospel states, “he was a Samaritan.” What the Samaritan would discover that the others failed, was that his thankfulness led him to a faith in Jesus. Hearing the words Jesus would say, “stand up and go; your faith has saved you.” Those words would echo through the rest of his life as he realized who Jesus was. That simple thankfulness led this Samaritan to a new discovery of who Jesus was. And hopefully it is a lesson for all of us. To be a thankful people for all that God has given to us and our thankfulness will lead us to a deeper faith in Jesus who brings the hope of salvation to all of us.

This Saturday night, we welcome the students of Quincy Notre Dame and their guests to our 5:00 p.m. Mass as they celebrate their homecoming. The practice of celebrating Mass together before their dinner and dance has been a tradition here for the past 10 years. And it is a beautiful tradition as it blends our faith into life as a student. We ask God to watch over our young people tonight and help them make wise decisions and protect them from all harm.

Also this Sunday afternoon, our 8th grade class and their chaperones will be heading to Washington D.C. for their annual class trip. They will be leaving in the afternoon and we pray that they have a very safe and memorable trip. Fr. Zach will be accompanying them in their journey to the various sites. Please keep them all in your prayers and they will return next Friday evening.

Just a reminder that we will have another Smore evening next Sunday evening, October 16th. It was such a great evening for families that we want to do it again. We will also have a Mass in the grass that same evening at 5:00 p.m. We ask you to bring your blankets and/or chairs as we celebrate Mass in God’s outdoor cathedral (next to Seton Hall). After Mass we will have our Smore evening. Come and enjoy. Let’s pray that the weather is as beautiful as it is this week.

Also, Fr. Delix Michel will be coming to the parish on the weekend of October 15-16th to thank us for our efforts in supporting our sister parishes in Haiti. Haiti at this time is in turmoil and the parishioners of our sister parishes need our financial assistance more so than ever as they deal with hunger, poverty, corruption, kidnappings, other atrocities to the dignity of the human person.

8th GRADE LEAVE FOR THEIR DC TRIP!

Once again our 8th grade class will be traveling to Washington, D.C. This is a once in a lifetime educational experience they will remember for many years. The knowledge they gain on this very fast paced trip is unbelievable! A huge thank you to Mrs. Martin, Mr. VanderBor, and Mr. Dave Cawthon for working with the 8th grade and organizing the details of the trip. Mr. Cawthon took over the planning of the trip in 2004 upon Fr. Bauer's retirement from St. Peter. This has been an amazing educational tradition from year to year for our 8th grade students.

St. Dominic 8th grade students will also be joining us for this year. The students are very prepared in understanding what they are going to see, what they need to look for in the venues they visit, and the historical content and religious history of what they are touring.

We thank the parents who have agreed to chaperone and we are extremely grateful to the tremendous support Fr. Leo gives us for this trip.

The students and chaperones will depart at 1:00 today, Sunday, October 9. Please keep them in your prayers.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

There are some parishes who have returned to the sharing of the cup, the Blood of Christ, at their weekend Masses. I'm not quite certain I feel comfortable doing that here since I'm not sure our parishioners are ready at this time. But I do want to have you pray over this, asking God's guidance on this matter. I do miss offering the Eucharist under the form of wine and hope to return to this practice soon.

I also want you to know once again that our weekend Mass, usually the 5:00 p.m. Saturday, is being Televised on YouTube or you may get this same Mass visiting our website, cospq.org and follow the directions.

The following is the story I shared with the parishioners at my Masses last weekend. FYI.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A little girl asked her mother: "How did the human race appear?" The mother answered, "God made Adam and Eve and they had children and so was all mankind made."

Two days later she asks her father the same question. The father answered, "many years ago there were monkeys from which the human race was developed."

The little girl returns to her mother and says, "Mom, how is it possible that you told me that the human race was created by God and dad says they were developed from monkeys."

The mother answers, "well dear, its very simple. I told you about the origin of my side of the family while your father told you about his side."
