Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 6, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

On this first weekend in our month of November, the Church celebrates the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary time. As we look ahead, we realize that our liturgical year is coming to a close. In fact, there are only 34 weeks in this time called “ordinary” and we will celebrate its conclusion on the Solemnity of Christ the King, November 20th. As we bring this year to a close, let's pray that God's grace will fill our hearts and lives and help us be the stewards He calls us to be.

This weekend I get the privilege of speaking at all the Masses. We are bringing to a conclusion our Stewardship Renewal weekend. Each of you has received in the mail Stewardship Renewal packets. In these packets you will find our ministry catalogue, along with a letter from me as well as a Stewardship Commitment card. What I ask you this year, as I have in all the other previous years, is to take these commitment cards to prayer. The reason we have you fill these forms out each year is that our situations often change, as does God's call to each of us in forms of prayer, in forms of ministry, and in forms of treasures. I really encourage you to take these forms to prayer where you can discern what God is asking each of you for this stewardship year. We might think that what I think I can do is okay, and I suppose it is. But it becomes much more rewarding when we discern the commitment to which God is calling us this year. So please, before you fill out the forms, take it to prayer. When we do that then we are fulfilling God's will in our gift rather than thinking we can do this by ourselves. Stewardship is realizing all that God has done for us, and in turn we give back to Him from our time, talents, and treasures. So above all, please, please take it to prayer. Then fill out the forms and return them to us in the collection, through the mail, or bring them by the rectory. If anyone has misplaced their commitment cards, there will be extra's in the narthex. We need your assistance as we strive to become a stewardship parish.

This weekend at our 5:00 p.m. Mass, we will have our Mass of Remembrance. This is always special as we remember all those parishioners who have died this past year. We also have near the baptismal font our Book of the Dead with all those names of these parishioners inscribed in them. The Church celebrates this month what is called the Communion of Saints. We celebrate the Church in heaven, called the Church triumphant. We celebrate each of us, the Church on earth, in what is called the Church militant. And finally, we celebrate the Church suffering, those purging themselves, preparing for their new life in heaven with the Church triumphant. This last grouping is whom we remember in our Masses and prayers as they make ready to purge themselves of any flaws, imperfections, and after-effects of sin as they make ready to enjoy the fullness of God's life in heaven. As we so often pray, as in the case today, May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace now and forever. Amen. Again, please remember all those who have died. Our prayers never go unanswered as Our Lord hears our prayers and grants eternal rest to all those who are in need of our prayers. As the Living Church here on earth, we have a responsibility and an obligation to remember those who have gone before us in death.

Today is Commitment Sunday
 Today all parish families are asked to bring their Commitment Card to Mass or complete a card online at our parish website, www.cospq.org. During Mass, as a parish community, we offer God our gifts of time, talent, and treasure. Our goal is to be a Stewardship Parish—a community who is noticeably committed to prayer, parish ministry, and generous financial support. All three are equally important. May God bless you as you discern how He is calling you to grow closer to Him this year.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

In preparation for our celebration of All Saints, we prepared the St. Joseph altar with our collection of statues of saints. I presume that this was Fr. Bauer's collection from years past and it is always an honor to place them out with names near each saint. Please take time to come to this shrine of the Saints and see these models and intercessors for all of us. I will try to keep these statues up until right before Advent. I think it is important that we realize our lives here are not just about me living here on earth but rather about our destiny, living with our God in heaven. All Saints of God, pray for us.

We need some help from our parishioners. Eucharistic ministers are needed to distribute Holy Communion to the patients each day. The response by St. Peter parishioners has been great but we still are in need of others so that Holy Communion can be offered each day. If you are able to devote an hour a week to help us distribute Holy Communion to people who are in need, please contact Rebecca Knuffman, our parish nurse, here at the parish office. Thank you!

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Before listening to her young patients heartbeats, pediatric nurse at the hospital would often fit the stethoscope over their ears and allow them to listen first.

One four year old boy was awed by the sound. The nurse asked him, "what do you suppose that is?"

The child, a regular at Sunday school, answered, "Is that Jesus knocking?"
