The Nativity of the Lord Solemnity, December 25, 2022

Dear Parishioners,

In the beautiful responsorial psalm for the evening Mass on Christmas eve, we sing the words, “Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord.” These words proclaim the Solemnity for which we have been preparing, and the hope fulfilled for all humanity. Yes, “Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord.” This long awaited Messiah, the Word of God, becomes flesh, and our world is transformed, not through our making, but rather through the Will of the God who never gave up on His creation. And because of that, we gather this evening and morning as a very thankful people. In spite of the failures and fall of humanity, God, through Jesus, has once again reconciled us to Him and showed us in concrete form God’s very love for all of us.

I always like to use the gospel of St. Luke, the one used at night on Christmas eve, in our celebration of Christmas. It places the birth of Jesus in historical context, when Caesar Augustus was the emperor and Quirinius was governor of Syria. In accord with the decree, there was to be a census, and each family was to be enrolled in their home town. And so we find Joseph and Mary returning to Bethlehem because Joseph was of the house of David. Let the words penetrate our hearts: “While they were there, the time came for her to have her child and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.” Simple explanation for a profound mystery. And now we find witnesses of this event, people who represented the Jewish tradition. Our proclamation continues: “Now there were shepherds in that region living in the fields and keeping the night watch over their flock. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were struck with great fear. And the angels said to them, “Do not be afraid for behold, I proclaim to you the good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a Savior has been born for you who is Christ the Lord.” And in response to this declaration, the angels proclaimed what should be our response to such great a mystery, “Glory to God in the highest; and on earth peace to those on whom His favor rests.” On behalf of St. Peter priests, staff, and school personnel, I want to wish each and every one of you a very BLESSED AND MERY CHRISTMAS. Let the words of this gospel echo in your hearts and lives as we rejoice in the Lord’s coming among us in history, as well as His coming to us in mystery especially through the Sacraments.

As I reflect upon my memories of Christmas’ past, I am forever grateful to my mother and father who taught me what Christmas is all about. It is about family, it is about faith, and it is about Eucharist. I remember getting up early as kids on Christmas morning, full of excitement and eagerness to open up our presents. But the most cherished memory was when we went to Church as a family, celebrating the Eucharist when we would hear Christ coming in our history and then celebrate His coming in mystery and through the Eucharist that was present. As I reflect on that memory, I still miss my parents. They taught me a lot about giving, about sharing; and I thank God for these memories imprinted in my life. I pray that they are enjoying the fullness of Christmas in their lives with Christ.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Next weekend, we celebrate the Holyday called the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. Our Mass schedule for this weekend will return to the normal schedule for the weekend, namely,
 Mass on the Vigil, Dec. 31st: 5:00 p.m.
 Mass on the Solemnity, Jan. 1st: 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

On behalf of our parish family, I want to thank the many people who helped decorate the Church, inside and out. Our campus truly reflected the Christmas spirit that is present in our parish. To those who decorated, our Church decoration committee, I thank you. To those who contributed donations in memory of someone, I thank you. To the Frericks family and their business, Frericks Gardens, for your generous donations of the poinsettias. And to all who made our Christmas truly a celebration of family, I thank you. I truly appreciate each of you and pray that God will touch each of you with His love and presence.

ION THE LIGHTER SIDE: One Sunday, the six year old son returned home from Sunday school and proudly displayed a drawing of a jet plane with four people sitting in the cockpit.

The boy explained that in Sunday school that day they had learned about the "Flight to Egypt of Mary, Joseph, and Jesus." "That's a fine drawing," his father said to the boy, "but who are the four people in the cockpit?"

The boy replied, "Well, that's Joseph, Mary, Jesus, and Pontius—he's the pilot."

What can I give Him, poor as I am? If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb; If I were a wise man, I would do my part. Yet what can I give Him—Give my heart. (Christina Rossetti)

MERRY CHRISTMAS,

Mary Leo J. Euler
