The Most Holy Trinity Solemnity, June 4, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather on this first Sunday in our month of June, the Church celebrates one of the mysteries of our faith that is the most difficult to understand let alone try to explain, namely the Mystery of the Trinity. We profess a belief in a Triune, a God of three Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. They are three Persons but one God. And we find this mystery very much present in all of our prayers as we begin each prayer with that sign of the Triune God, “in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” Let’s just say that our God is a community of Persons and we are invited to share in that community through His graces and His activity in our lives.

We want to welcome to our parish our new transitional deacon, Rev. Mr. Jayke White. Being a transitional deacon, he is preparing himself for the priesthood in his final studies at St. Meinrad Seminary in Indiana. He will be with us through the summer months and I ask you to welcome him with open arms by introducing yourselves to him and making him feel at home with us. This final summer of his training will assist him in his journey to the priesthood. He will be preaching, baptizing, and assisting us at the Eucharist. Since we will be away this week on retreat, he will be having a Communion service that will include him proclaiming the gospel and preaching through the week. On behalf of all of us, I welcome Rev. Mr. Jayke White to our parish.

Since next weekend, June 10-11th, is the Solemnity of the Most Holy and Blood of Christ, we will be reintroducing to the parish Holy Communion under both species. Since Covid, we limited ourselves to receiving Christ under the appearance of bread only. But this weekend, we return to celebrating the Eucharist with our family being able to receive Holy Communion, both the Body and Blood of Christ. We need Eucharistic ministers and so I am asking all of our former ones to sign up for this ministry and once again participate in this ministry. For those who are still gun-shy receiving from the Cup, I remind you that you do not have to receive Holy Communion in this way. And please do not be critical of people who wish to receive from the Cup. After several years, it is good to get back to some normalcy in our celebrations. Whether one receives the Body of Christ and/or the Blood of Christ, one receives the whole Christ, Soul and Divinity. May each of us proclaim that glorious Amen, “So be it,” when we hear those words, “the Body of Christ,” and/or the “Blood of Christ. And let us be conscious of who we are receiving and show the reverence and respect that is due.

I have shared with you in previous columns our plans for the future expansion here at St. Peter Church. This basically includes more space for people to use. We hope to open up our basement of the Church, including all of the rooms, for a type of parish hall. To make that possible, we will be hoping to build a cafeteria which will be connected to the school so that our students will only be leaving for Church and nothing else. This provides an element of security for us. On the upper level of the cafeteria will be more classrooms which we are in need desperately. The lower level will include storage space, something we always need. Right now nothing is cast in stone but we are only dreaming what could be done.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

As many of you know, I turn 75 next May and will then have to submit my letter of resignation as pastor to the Bishop. Do I have to do this building project? The answer is no but I have heard people since I got here complaining about lack of meeting spaces, or the kids eating below the Church. It would be nice to offer space for funeral dinners without having to kick our kids from the gym on those days. Then as we continue to dream, one of the things that our Catholic schools need is a new gym that would accommodate our junior high as well as help QND with their athletic programs. Right now we are renting space just to practice. This is badly needed for the area. So we enlisted the Steier group, a Catholic fund-raising group to do a feasibility study to see what is possible. As I said, nothing is concrete. We are looking at possibilities and to think outside the box. I ask your prayers, love, and support. Why would I undertake such a project? Because it will make St. Peter parish and school even more attractive and inviting for people. More details will be forthcoming. Just preparing you.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A little girl wanted to know what the United States looked like. Her dad tore a map of the USA from a magazine and then cut it into small pieces. He told her to go to her room and see if she can put it together. After some minutes she returned and handed the map correctly fitted and taped together. The dad was surprised and asked how she had finished so quickly. She said "on the other side was a picture of Jesus and when I put him back then our country just came together."
