Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe Solemnity, November 23, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather this week on this last Sunday in our liturgical calendar, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This Solemnity was established by Pope Pius IX in 1925 to counteract several bad trends. One trend was an overly sentimental view of Jesus Christ. Another trend was to view that Jesus was irrelevant to this world. Religion seemed to have its place in the world, but it should not be touching economics nor politics. By celebrating this Solemnity, the Church wanted to show that Jesus Christ must be the king and center of social, political, as well as personal life. And so we have as our second reading that beautiful proclamation of Paul in his letter to the Colossians. Paul writes, “Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all Creation. For in Him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, all things were created through Him and for Him. He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He Himself might be preeminent.” What a beautiful description of Jesus as the King of the Universe.

This next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day. As you know by now, our time for this celebration at 9:30 a.m. since our neighbors to the east have what they call their “Turkey Run” which prevents us from celebrating our Mass any earlier. As a stewardship parish, this should be a day that we gather to give God thanks, recognizing and acknowledging all the gifts that God has given to us personally, as a parish and as a nation, and thanking Him with grateful hearts for these blessings. For the time given to us, the talents shared with us, and the treasures given to us, we gather to thank Him for these blessings.

FYI: Monday, December 8th, is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. Under this title of the Immaculate Conception both our country and our diocese have been dedicated to Mary. In other words, this is the Feast Day of our patroness. Usually, even though this date falls on a Monday, it still remains a Holyday of Obligation for all Catholics. However, we are not able to have a Vigil Mass on that Sunday night because of the Sunday of Advent takes precedence and so there will be NO Vigil Mass on Sunday, December 7th. Our Mass schedule for the Holyday will be as follows:

December 8th: 8:20 Mass at St. Peter with Grade School Present; 10:00 Mass at QND; 12:10 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. Masses at St. Peter Church.

Next weekend we begin the Season of Advent, celebrating the beginning of grace of the year 2026. With this celebration, we begin a new liturgical year as follows: Year A, Sunday cycle of readings; Cycle II, weekday cycle of readings.

If you have not returned your commitment cards for our annual stewardship renewal, please do so this weekend. We need your active participation.

St. Peter School

Week of November 23, 2025

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

“St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings.”

As we give thanks, we want to express our gratitude to the parents, grandparents and parishioners who make our school community strong and vibrant. Your partnership in education is a treasure. Your continual prayers offer such a great deal of support as our children learn each day. Happy Thanksgiving to everyone who makes a significant impact on our school.

HOUSE THANKSGIVING CELEBRATION & FEAST

On November 25 students in grades K-8 will celebrate Thanksgiving. Our day will begin with a Thanksgiving feast in which our students will be divided into their HOUSES. As the students eat with their HOUSE buddies they will also create a large HOUSE banner by writing or drawing things that they are thankful for. We are sincerely grateful to our PTA for providing the snacks for our Thanksgiving Feast.

Later that day our students will perform their HOUSE raps for the student body. They have been working on a rap that informs others about their saint and the saint's virtue and symbol. We will even have judges to determine who has the best rap song!

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I met with my oncologists at Siteman Cancer Center at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis last week. As they somewhat expected, the source of my cancer is in the pancreas. Over the past three months, I've been on a pancreatic chemo regimen and the doctor is pleased with the results. I'm going to continue to have chemo every other week until mid-January, and at that time, we'll reevaluate and discuss all options going forward. Please continue to keep me in your prayers. Thank you.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: After listening restlessly to a long and tedious sermon, a six year old boy asked his father what the preacher did the rest of the week.

“Oh, he's a very busy man,” the father replied. “He takes care of the Church business, visits the sick, ministers to the poor...and then he has to have time to rest up. Talking in public isn't an easy job, you know.”

The boy thought about that, then said, “Well, listening ain't that easy either.”

Church signs: Sign outside a Church in Dover, MD. “If we are not hungry for Christ, we're probably too full of ourselves.”

Outside and Episcopal Church, Kingsville, MD. “Life is a puzzle. Look to God for the missing piece.”

Another sign: “Go to Church, instead of shopping. Parking is easier. And the Gift lasts.”

 OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

November 4, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
 In our Diocese of Springfield in Illinois, too many of our neighbors still live in poverty. On average, about 12 percent of people across our diocese live below the poverty line.¹ These families struggle daily with food, housing, and stability, reminding us of the Lord's words: "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40).
 The Diocesan Campaign for Justice and Hope (DCJH) exists to bring realistic hope and practical help to the poor. Every dollar you give to this second collection stays within diocesan boundaries, supporting only those organizations that uphold Catholic teaching and our consistent life ethic. Funded ministries provide food, education, family support, and other pathways out of poverty.
 Your past generosity has already changed lives. I now ask you again to give generously, so that together we may bring Christ's love to those in greatest need.

Gratefully yours in Christ,
+ Thomas John Paprocki
 Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
