Fourth Sunday of Advent, December 21, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

We gather this weekend to celebrate our fourth and final Sunday in our season of Advent. Our celebration seems to be the bridge between the anticipation of Christ’s coming and the actual coming in history. So our gospel begins, “this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph, her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, ‘Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name Him Jesus, because He will save His people from their sins.’ When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.” Thus we have the beginning of the Good News of our Salvation. God has entered our world to save us from ourselves, and thus reveal to us His Father’s love. May that love that became a human person draw us ever closer to His Kingdom and may each of us become a mirror of that love for others. That’s the greatest Christmas gift we could give to each other.

This Sunday, December 21st, we will have our annual city-wide Advent Penance Service to be held at St. Francis beginning at 2:00 p.m. There will be a number of priests from the area who will be present for individual confessions. I encourage you to attend and celebrate this Sacrament with us and thus make “ready the way of the Lord in each of your lives.” This will be the last time that individual confessions will be available so please use this time wisely and receive the forgiveness of the Lord and His reconciliation in your life.

On behalf of the parish and school administration, I want to wish each and every one of you a very Blessed and Merry Christmas. Our celebration of Christmas will be as follows:

Wednesday, Christmas Eve: Masses will be at 4:00, 6:00, and 8:00 p.m.

Thursday, Christmas Day: Masses will be at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m.

For those thinking about attending the 4:00 Mass on Christmas Eve, I want you to know that this is a standing room only Mass as it is very crowded. Since there is No reserved seating, people in attendance must get in Church by 3:30 in order to secure a seat.

As we bless our Christmas crib, let us pray the following: “God of every nation and people, from the very beginning of creation you have made manifest your love; when our need for a Savior was great you sent your Son to be born of the Virgin Mary. To our lives He brings joy and peace, justice, mercy, and love.

Lord, bless all who look upon this manger; may it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus, and raise up our thoughts to Him, who is God with us and Savior of all, and who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

A VERY BLESSED AND MERRY CHRISTMAS

Fr. Leo’s column continued..

Once again, I find our decorations for Christmas very tasteful and well coordinated. I thank our decorating committee for all their work in making our environment so beautiful to celebrate our Christmas season. I also want to thank our parishioners who generously gave in support of our decorations for Christmas. And of course, I want to thank Darrell Obert for most of the decorations outside this year and to Eric McNay who helped with our twinkling lights. I am just amazed at the decorations both inside and outside. Thank you to all.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Searching through row upon row of Christmas trees, my husband Norm and I picked one we liked. Then I noticed the one being held by a woman nearby “the” perfect tree. I watched as she carried it around the lot and couldn’t believe my eyes when she set it aside. I ditched ours and ran over to grab the coveted tree. “Aren’t we lucky?” I said to Norm. “I do feel guilty, though, for taking it before she could change her mind.” “Don’t worry,” he replied. “She just ran over and snatched ours.”

As we look ahead, Thursday, January 1st, is the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. It is a Holyday of Obligation. Our Mass schedule will be as follows:
Wednesday, December 31st, New Year’s Eve:
Mass will be at 5:00 p.m.
Thursday, January 1st, New Year’s Day: Mass will be at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m.
