The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph Feast, December 28, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend after Christmas, we gather to celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. This feast celebrates the fact that Jesus came into the world within the context of a family, and that family would mold and fashion this Son of God into the man of faith, hope, and love that He would become. This family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph offer our families an example of what it means to live in holiness and faith. The first thing we notice is that this holy family knew its own share of heartache, challenge, and hardship. As we hear in our gospel today that they were forced to travel far from home during the riskiest time of Mary's pregnancy, leading to their Son's birth in a rough place and in conditions less than ideal. Shortly after the birth, they are told that they must flee for their lives and the life of their newborn Son. They travel in haste to a distant land until they receive the message that it is safe for them to return. Their challenges resemble the challenges we experience in our own families.

This Feast of the Holy Family holds up for us their example of simple trust and openness to God, and the faith which they shared. They show us that our families, even in times of challenge or uncertainty, can also be holy families—settings in each of us can grow in kindness, humility, gentleness and peace.

On this Feast of the Holy Family, I want to let you know that each of you will be remembered in my prayers. As I reflect upon my parish family, I realize the holiness that exists in each of your lives. May that holiness continue to permeate your lives as you share it with others. On this feast of the Holy Family, this is my prayer for you:

“We bless your name, O Lord, for sending your own Incarnate Son to become part of a family, so that, as He lived its life, He would experience its worries and its joys.

We ask you, Lord, to protect and watch over this family, so that in the strength of your grace its members may enjoy prosperity, possess the priceless gift of your peace, and, as the Church alive in the home, bear witness in this world to your glory.

May the Lord Jesus, who lived with His holy family in Nazareth, dwell also with your family, keep it from all evil, and make all of you one in heart and mind. Amen.

As usual, our Church was beautifully decorated for Christmas on the outside as well as the inside. I am so proud of people who know how to decorate in a simple but glorious fashion. Our decorations are so welcoming and display the mystery of Christmas in such a simple but glorious way. Thank you for making our Christmas celebration a liturgy of class and beauty.

I also want to thank our choirs for enhancing our liturgies with their gift of song. Through your participation, you put each of us in the spirit of Christmas. Thank you for sharing your gifts with all of us.

Again, to each and every one of you, I want to wish you a very Blessed and Merry Christmas.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

Just a reminder that next Thursday, January 1st, is a Holyday of Obligation for all Catholics as we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God. Our Mass schedule will be as follows: Vigil Mass for the Holyday, Wednesday, December 31st will be at 5:00 p.m. Then our Mass on the Holyday itself, January 1st, will be at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. Please join us as we celebrate this Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Rules for buying gifts for men:

1. Never buy a man anything that says, “some assembly required” on the box. It will ruin his special day and he will always have parts left over.
2. When in doubt, buy him a cordless drill. It does not matter if he already has one. I have a friend who owns 17 and he has yet to complain. As a man, you can never have too many cordless drills. No one knows why.
3. If you are really, really broke, buy him anything for his car. A 99 cent ice scraper, a small bottle of de-icer, or something to hang from his rear view mirror. Men love gifts for their cars. No one knows why.
4. Rope. Men love ropes. It takes us back to our cowboy origins, or at least the Boy Scouts. Nothing says love like a hundred feet of 3/8 manila rope. No one knows why.
5. Buy men label makers. They are almost as good as cordless drills. Within a couple of weeks there will be labels absolutely everywhere. Socks, Shorts, Cups, Saucers, Door, Lock, Sink. You get the idea. No one knows why.
